1. Create an IAM user with programmatic access only, download the access key and secret key, and document the steps with screenshots.Then set up a billing alert for the account so that an email is received when the Free Tier limit is about to be crossed.

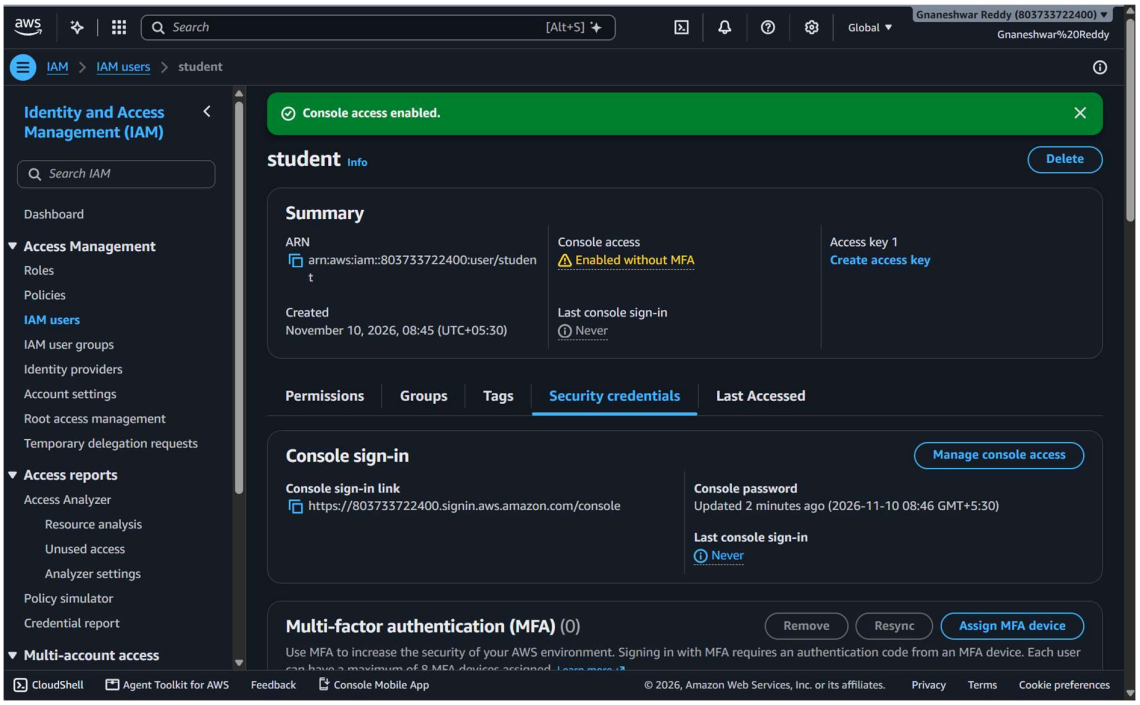

Opened the AWS Management Console to access the available AWS services.

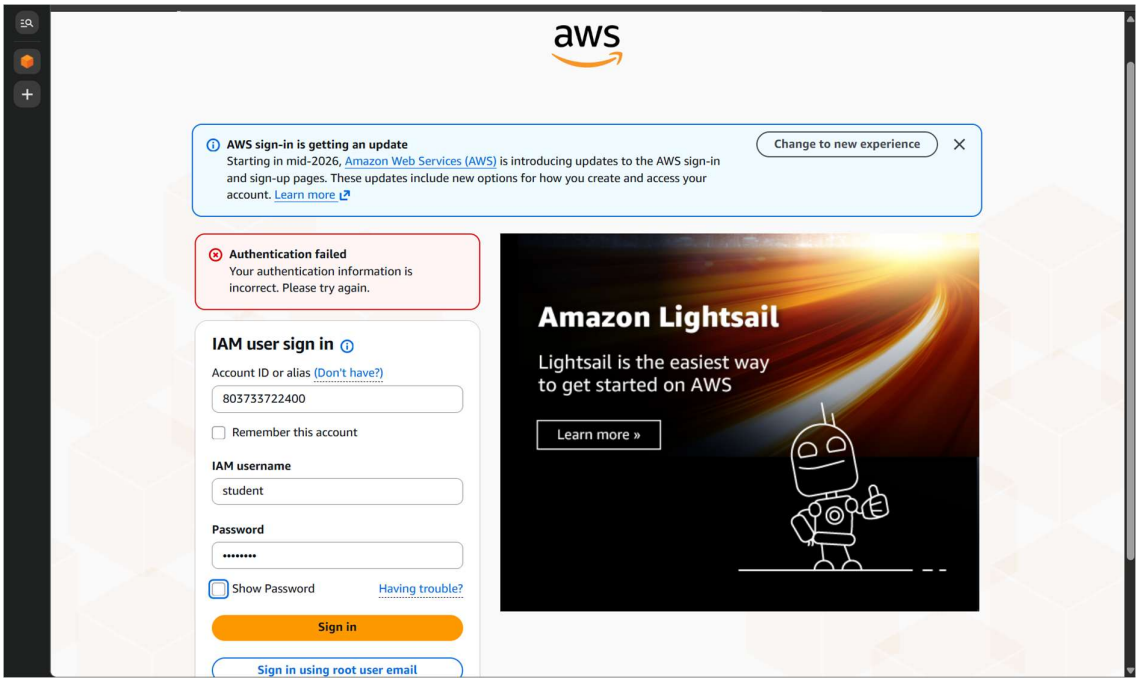

Navigated to the IAM Users section to create a new IAM user.

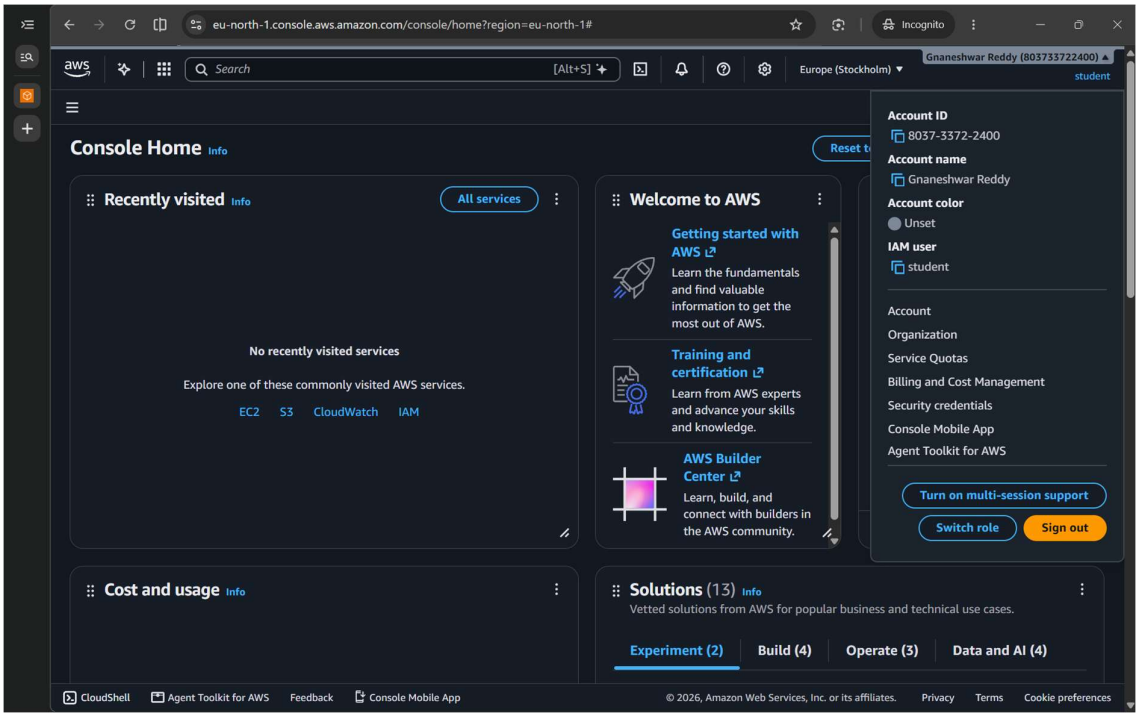

Entered the IAM user details and configured the required permissions.

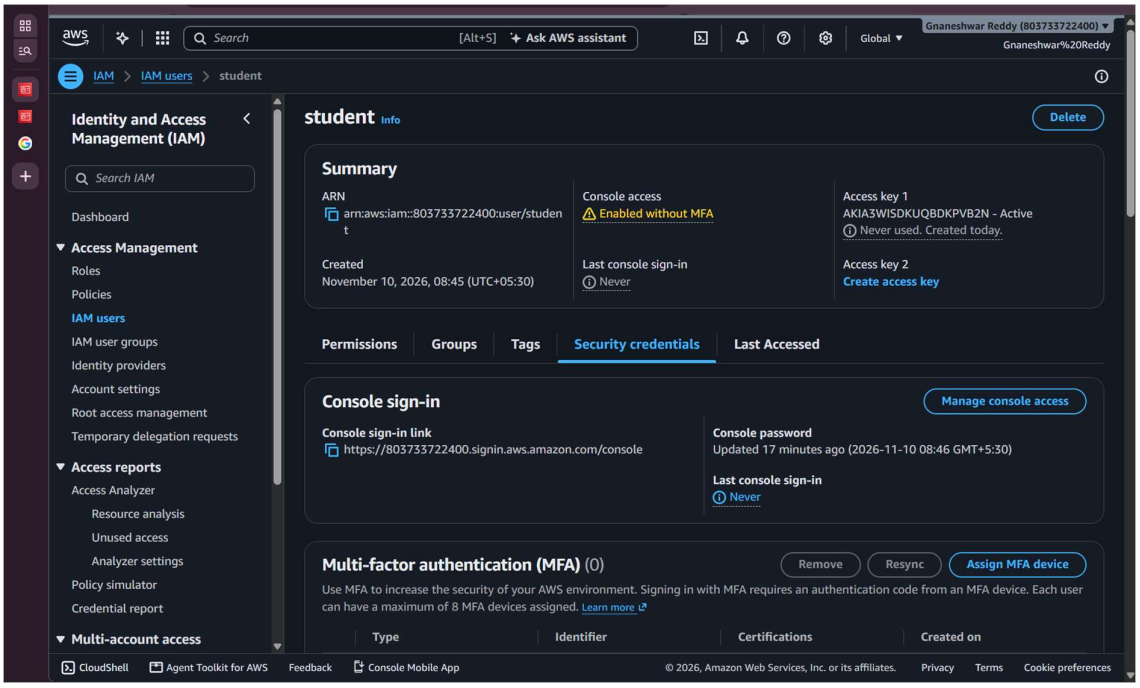

Successfully created the IAM user and verified the user details.

Opened the AWS sign-in page to access the AWS account.

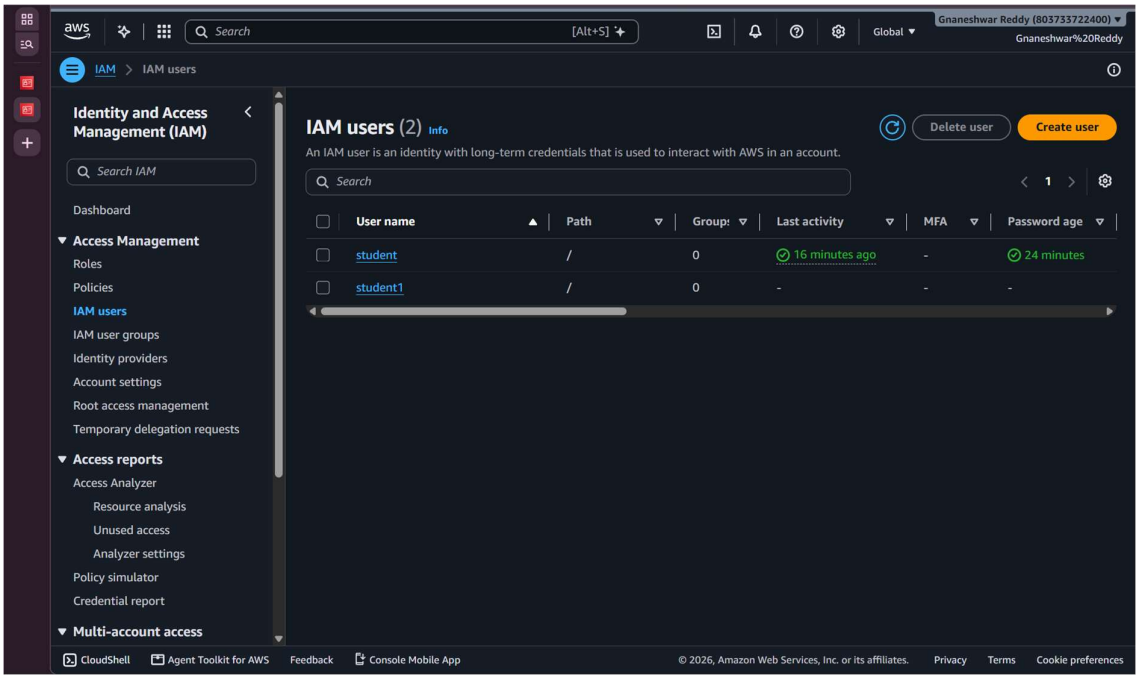

Opened the AWS account menu to access account and security settings.

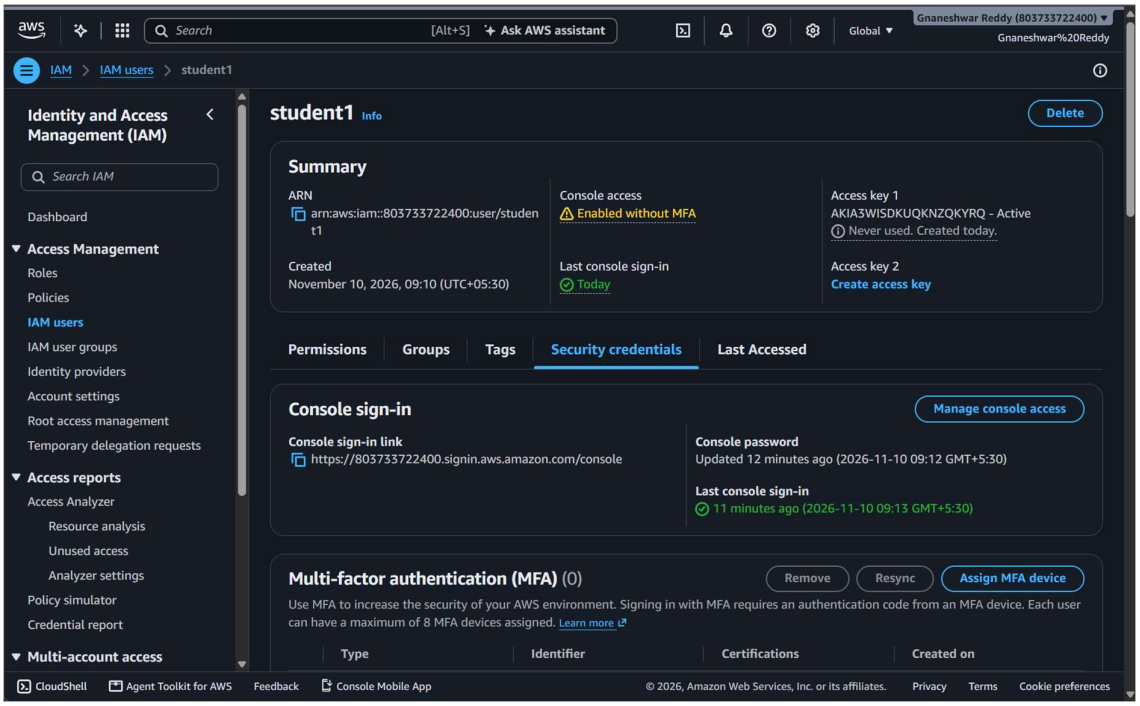

Viewed the IAM user details and checked the available security credentials.

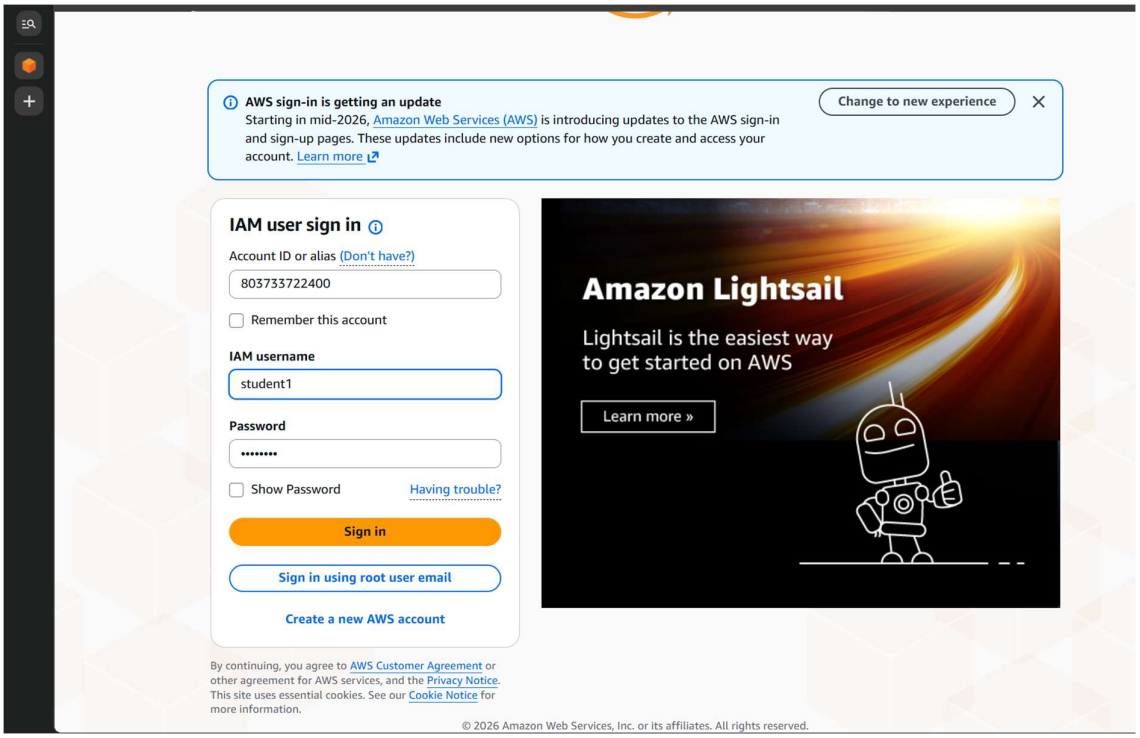

Student1

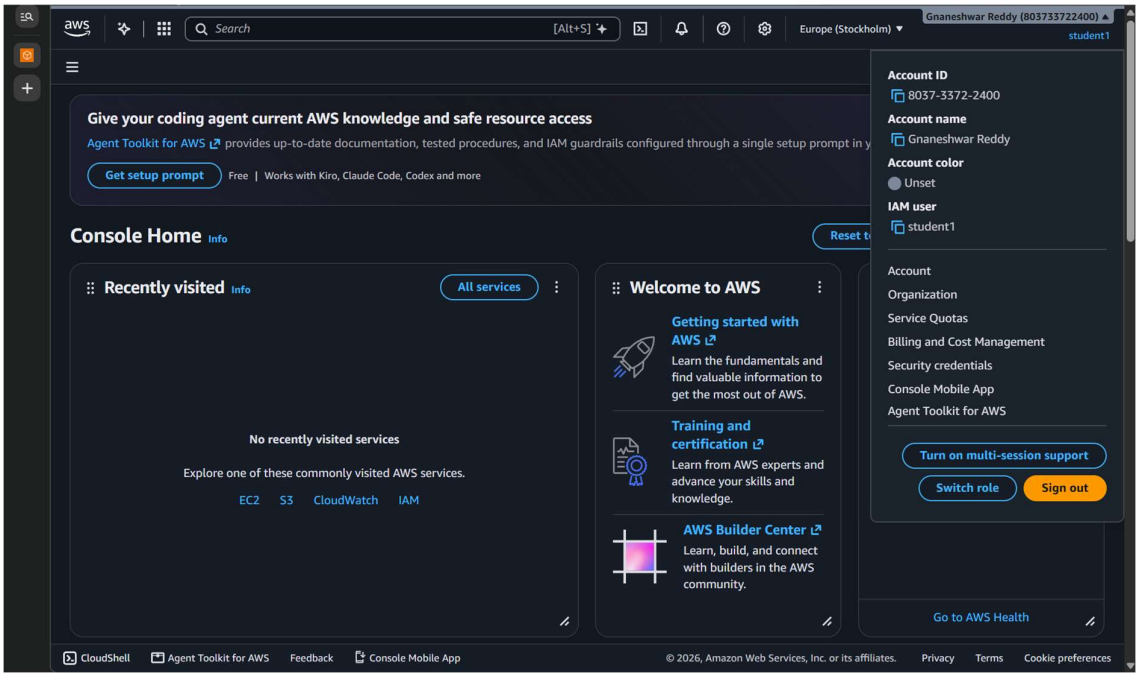

Verified the created IAM users in the IAM Users dashboard.

Checked the IAM user's security credentials and related settings.

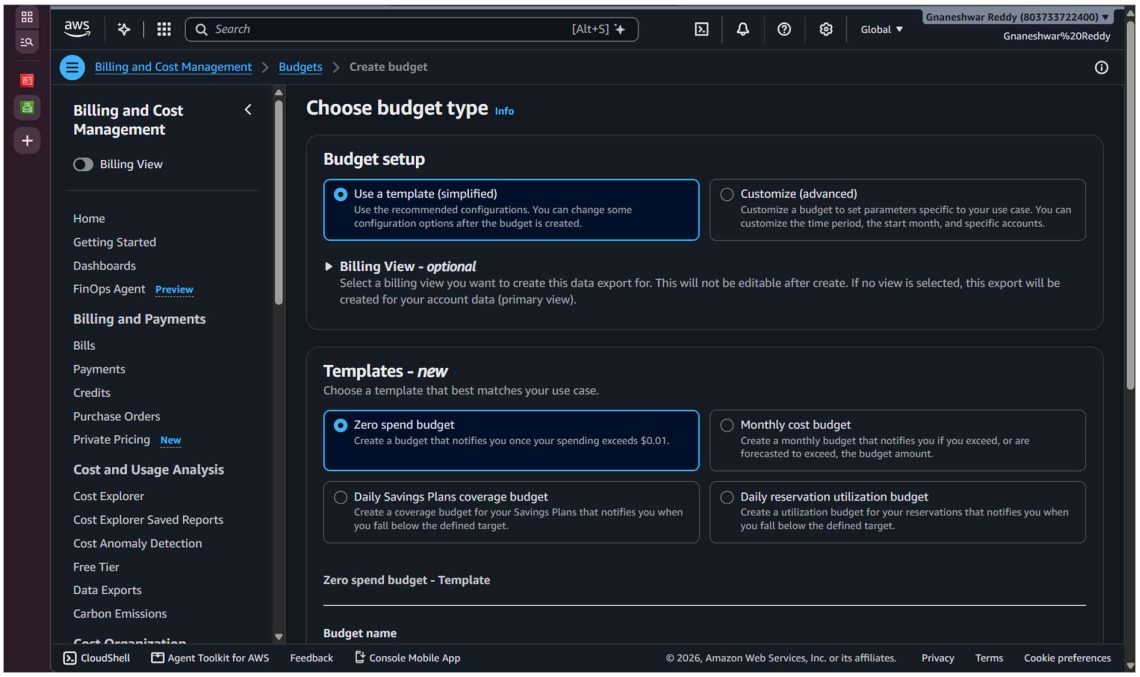

Signed in to AWS using the available account credentials.

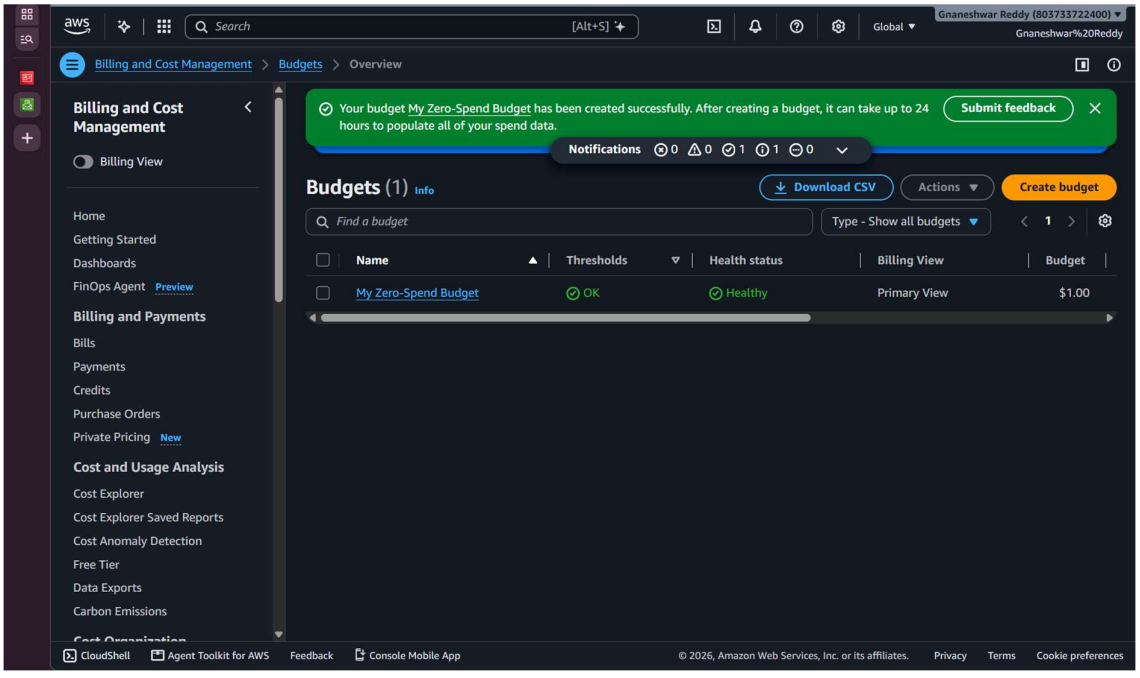

Opened the AWS account menu to navigate to billing and account settings.

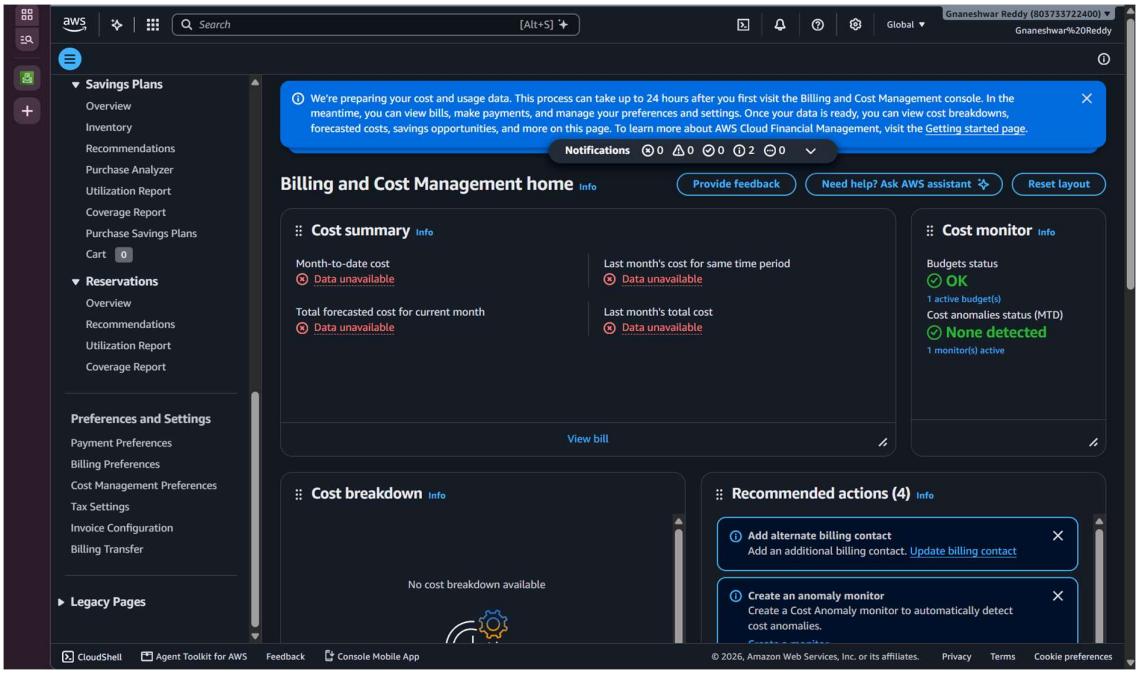

Billing

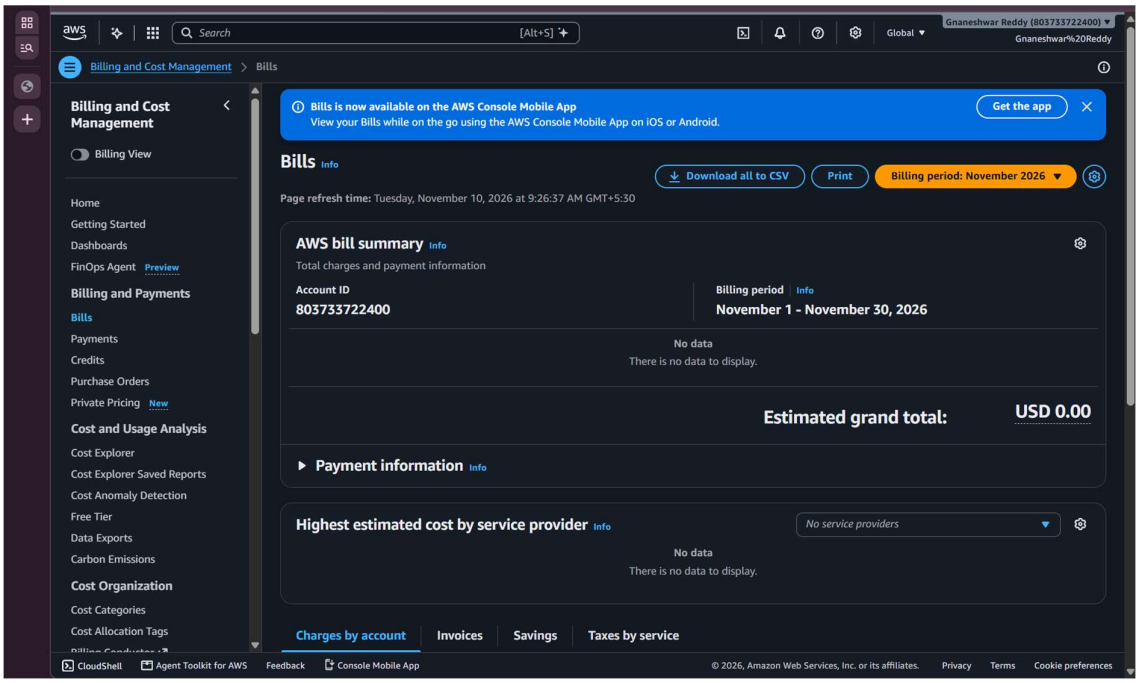

Selected the budget type and configured the billing alert settings.

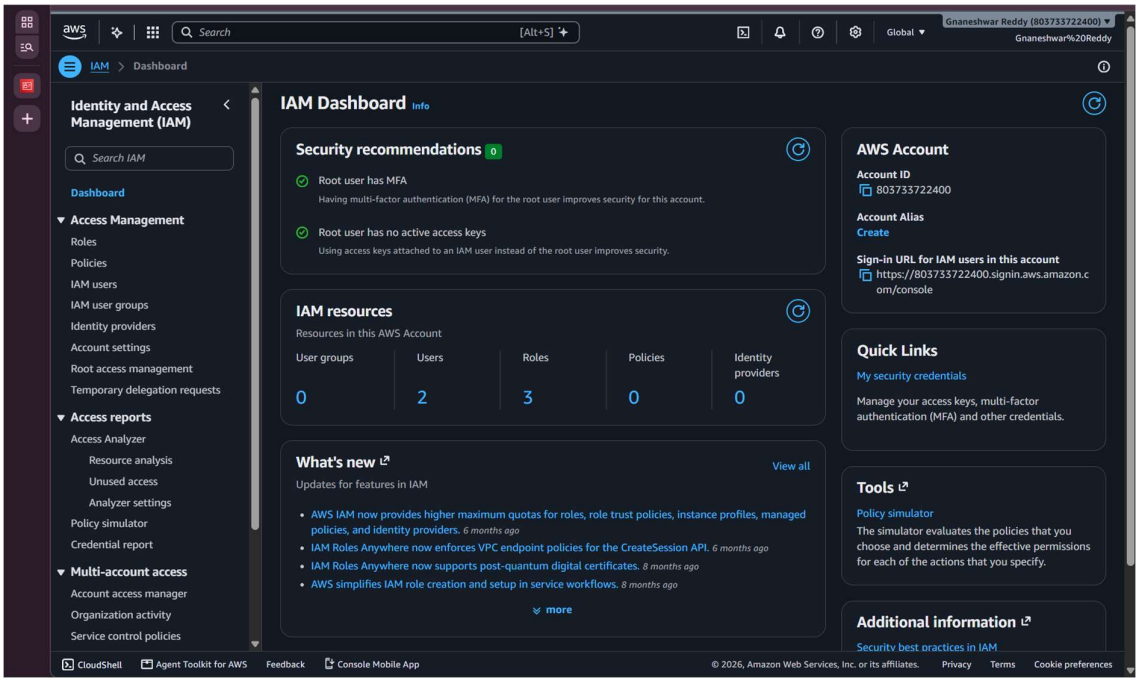

Successfully created the budget to monitor AWS account spending.

Viewed the AWS Billing and Cost Management dashboard to check billing details.

Checked the billing summary and estimated charges of the AWS account.

Returned to the AWS Management Console to verify the available services.